

I am horrified that so few people own media that when even one is unfair -- like Sinclair (Kovr in Sacramento, CA), it can influence an election. Sinclair should not be able to air a last-minute hit-piece against Kerry. Balance is impossible. Why is the FCC setting up Goliaths and thus squeezing out would-be Davids? I urge you to stop Sinclair, revoke its license, and severely limit the number of media outlets one company can own.
Sincerely, Ellen Wall
